ALLEGATIONS:

On 06 May 2008, at approximately 1539 hours, the victim, [REDACTED] contacted the Independent Police Review Authority and registered this complaint with Intake Aide Diane Wolfe. It is alleged that on 06 May 2008, at approximately 1115 hours, at [REDACTED] Sgt. Elvin Boone, #1964:

- 1) stated words to the effect of, "Big ass mouth;"
- 2) twisted [REDACTED] wrist during her arrest; and
- 3) falsely arrested [REDACTED] violating her fourth amendment rights.

It is also alleged that on the same date, time and location, Officer Jeffery Moore, #6312:

- 1) shot [REDACTED] dog without justification;
- 2) pushed [REDACTED] on her body; and
- 3) falsely arrested [REDACTED] violating her fourth amendment rights.

It is further alleged that on the same date, time and location, Detective Harry Strong, #20366:

- 1) twisted [REDACTED] arm during her arrest; and
- 2) falsely arrested [REDACTED] violating her fourth amendment rights.

In an interview with IPRA, the victim, [REDACTED] stated that she and her dog were in the basement of her home as she loaded laundry into the washer. [REDACTED] then opened the basement door to let her dog in the backyard. As [REDACTED] and her dog ascended the exterior stairs, she observed two unknown male/blacks, who did not announce their office at the time but she later learned were police officers, on her back door landing. The officers descended those stairs and one of the officers, Officer #1 (now known as Detective Strong), jumped a fence leading to [REDACTED] neighbor's yard. The other officer, Officer #2 (now known as Officer Moore), ran toward the front of the house and the dog chased him. [REDACTED] did not order the dog to chase the officers; nor did she tell him to stay. Moments later, [REDACTED] heard numerous gunshots. [REDACTED] then saw her dog walk along the walkway, exiting the premises into the alley. Officer Moore then emerged from the side of the house where [REDACTED] stood with Detective Strong. [REDACTED] told Officer Moore that she couldn't believe that he shot her dog.

[REDACTED] then ran up the stairs to her back door and called for her son's friend, [REDACTED] and told him to search the alley for the dog. [REDACTED] then walked through the house to the front and saw her father, sister, and a neighbor approaching. [REDACTED] returned and told [REDACTED] that her dog was dead. [REDACTED] approached Officer Moore and asked him why he shot her dog. Officer Moore then pushed [REDACTED]

Approximately ten minutes later, a male/black in plainclothes arrived and identified himself as a police sergeant (now known as Sgt. Boone). Sgt. Boone entered the house and asked, "Where's the woman with the big ass mouth who hit one of my officers?" [REDACTED] used profanity toward the officers and protested the shooting of her dog. Sgt. Boone then told [REDACTED] that she was under arrest. Sgt. Boone and Detective Strong handcuffed [REDACTED] twisting her right arm behind her. When [REDACTED] identified Officer Moore as the officer who shot her dog, Officer Moore stated that the dog clamped its teeth on his right knee. Officer Moore's pant leg did not appear to be torn, wet or wrinkled.

[REDACTED] questioned the warrant that justified the officers being on her property. The sergeant showed [REDACTED] an arrest warrant for an individual whom [REDACTED] does not know, and the address was for [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] sustained pain to her right wrist from being handcuffed, and a bruise to her arm. She sought medical attention at South Shore Hospital. (Att. 4)

Investigator Dennis Kamalick's Observation of Injury Report indicates that during an in-person interview with [REDACTED] he observed a small dark mark on the inside of her right arm, and swelling near her right wrist. (Att. 26)

In an interview with IPRA, witness [REDACTED] stated that he was at the home of his friend, Nikko Warr, who was at school at the time of the incident. Also in the home were children whom [REDACTED] asked [REDACTED] to watch while she did laundry and walked her dog. [REDACTED] heard a sound at the back door and went to the kitchen. He then heard the fence rattle, followed by gunshots. [REDACTED] looked out the kitchen window and saw [REDACTED] dog running on the walkway toward the alley.

Moments later [REDACTED] yelled to [REDACTED] and asked him to find her dog. [REDACTED] followed a trail of blood to the alley and found [REDACTED] dog. [REDACTED] returned and [REDACTED] that her dog was dead. [REDACTED] then became very animated and went outside, cursing the police. [REDACTED] approached one of the officers in the backyard, and he pushed her back when she reached two to three feet of him. At that time, [REDACTED] stepfather pulled her back inside the house. [REDACTED] then heard the officer that pushed [REDACTED] report over his radio that his knee was injured by a dog, and that a civilian at the scene struck him. A sergeant arrived and arrested [REDACTED] twisting her arm excessively. (Att. 7)

In an interview with IPRA, witness [REDACTED] father, stated that he lives at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] stated that at approximately 1100 hours on the date of this incident, the police came to his residence looking for [REDACTED] who failed to appear in court. [REDACTED] suggested that the officers go to [REDACTED] residence. Shortly afterward, [REDACTED] returned to the kitchen and then heard several gunshots. [REDACTED] ran to [REDACTED] house and [REDACTED] came out of her residence screaming. The police exited the gangway and [REDACTED] approached one of the officers with her hands outstretched and shoved him. The officer pushed [REDACTED] back and [REDACTED] grabbed [REDACTED] and pulled her into the house. [REDACTED] returned and requested a supervisor. A supervisor responded to the residence, did not listen to [REDACTED] and told [REDACTED] that she was under arrest. The officer whom [REDACTED] pushed entered the residence and told the sergeant that [REDACTED] hit him. [REDACTED] backed away from the officers and toward the kitchen. The sergeant grabbed [REDACTED] right arm and forced it behind her back. [REDACTED] stated that the officers did not have to use such force on [REDACTED] (Att. 9)

In an interview with IPRA, witness [REDACTED] sister, stated that she lives at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] stated that she was at her home when she heard several gunshots. [REDACTED] father then told her that [REDACTED] dog had been shot. [REDACTED] ran to [REDACTED] residence and when she reached the backyard, she was met by a plainclothes officer. [REDACTED] then entered the residence and learned that the police shot [REDACTED] dog.

Two officers then entered the home and one of them asked, "Who hit my officer?" That officer then grabbed [REDACTED] hand. [REDACTED] pulled her hand away and ran into the kitchen. The officer followed [REDACTED] to the kitchen, grabbed her hand and twisted it behind her back, and pushed her forward. The officers handcuffed [REDACTED] and placed her in a squad car. (Att. 11)

A canvass of the vicinity of the alleged incident produced no additional information. (Att. 18)

The Tactical Response Report completed by Detective Strong indicates that [REDACTED] was an Assailant in that she pulled away, struck him, and attacked him without a weapon. Detective Strong responded by handcuffing and arresting [REDACTED] (Att. 19)

The Officer Battery Report completed by Detective Strong indicates that [REDACTED] attacked him using her hands/fists. Detective Strong did not sustain any injury. (Att. 20)

The Tactical Response Report completed by Officer Moore indicates that while he was stationed at the rear of [REDACTED] residence, the door was opened—releasing the dog. The dog attacked Officer Moore and he fired eight rounds to prevent injury to himself and Detective Strong. (Att. 21)

The Officer Battery Report completed by Officer Moore indicates that he was threatened by a dog. He did not suffer any injury. (Att. 22)

The Arrest and Case Reports indicates that [REDACTED] was arrested and charged with Battery to Detective Strong. It is reported that Detective Strong and Officer Moore attempted to serve an arrest warrant at [REDACTED] When they knocked on the back door, a large dog exited and attacked the officers. The dog was destroyed, after which [REDACTED] exited the residence and punched Detective Strong on the chest and arms. (Att. 23, 24)

The Miscellaneous Incident Exception Report indicates that Officer Moore and Detective Strong, of the Fugitive Apprehension Unit, went to [REDACTED] in search of a female with the last name of "[REDACTED]" When the officers knocked at the back door, an unknown male stated that someone was at the door. A female asked, "Who is it?" The officers announced their office, after which the basement door opened and a dog charged at the officers. Officer Moore fired several rounds, striking the dog. (Att. 25)

Civil Suit# 09CV938 alleges essentially the same information as indicated in the Allegations Section of this Summary Report. (Att. 31)

The medical records obtained from South Shore Hospital indicate that [REDACTED] told hospital personnel that the police grabbed her right wrist. She complained of pain to her wrist, neck and back. (Att. 32)

In a report, Sgt. Boone denied committing any of the acts attributed to him in the Allegations Section. He also denied observing Detective Strong or Officer Moore commit any of the alleged acts. (Att. 36)

In a report, Officer Moore stated that he and Detective Strong knocked at the back basement door of [REDACTED] residence in an attempt to locate a wanted person. When [REDACTED] answered the door, he and Detective Strong announced their office after which [REDACTED] opened the basement door letting out a large, aggressive German Shepard. Officer Moore denied committing any of the acts attributed to him in the Allegations Section, and denied observing Detective Strong or Sgt. Boone commit any of the alleged acts. (Att. 40)

In a report, Detective Strong denied committing any of the acts attributed to him in the Allegations Section. He stated that he does not recall observing Officer Moore or Sgt. Boone commit any of the alleged acts. (Att. 44)

In reports, Sergeants Mary Grobarcik and Anita Medina, and Officers Tracy Adler Richard Arroyo and Claudia Hendrickson stated that they were not present at the time of [REDACTED] arrest and did not witness any Department member commit any of the alleged acts. (Att. 46-49, 52)

In reports, Officers Jacqueline Talley and John Botich stated that they have no recollection of the incident. (Att. 50, 53)

CONCLUSION:

The Reporting Investigator recommends a finding of Not Sustained for Allegations# 1-2 against Sgt. Boone, that he stated words to the effect of, "Big ass mouth," and twisted [REDACTED] wrist during her arrest. The witnesses did not corroborate [REDACTED] allegation concerning Sgt. Boone's use of the phrase, "Big ass mouth." Regarding Allegation# 2, witnesses [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] both stated that [REDACTED] pulled away and ran into the kitchen to avoid being handcuffed after the officers told her she was under arrest—thus [REDACTED] was an Active Resister. Placing the wrist behind the back and turning it is in conformance with the Chicago Police Department's handcuffing technique. There is insufficient evidence to determine whether the officers willfully and maliciously twisted [REDACTED] wrist.

The Reporting Investigator recommends a finding of Unfounded for Allegation# 3 against Sgt. Boone, that he falsely arrested [REDACTED] violating her fourth amendment rights. [REDACTED] was arrested and charged with Battery to Detective Strong. [REDACTED] stated that

██████████ exited the house screaming about her dog being shot and did in fact shove one of the officers.

The Reporting Investigator recommends a finding of Not Sustained for Allegations# 1 against Detective Strong, that he twisted ██████████ arm during her arrest, for the same basis cited for Allegation# 2 against Sgt. Boone.

The Reporting Investigator recommends a finding of Unfounded for Allegation# 2 against Detective Strong, that he falsely arrested ██████████ violating her fourth amendment rights, for the same basis cited for Allegation# 3 against Sgt. Boone.

The Reporting Investigator recommends a finding of Unfounded for Allegation# 1 against Officer Moore, that he shot ██████████ dog without justification. ██████████ stated that her dog chased Officer Moore. Officer Moore stated that he shot ██████████ dog after it charged at him.

The Reporting Investigator recommends a finding of Not Sustained for Allegation #2, against Officer Moore, that he pushed the complainant, ██████████ on her body. Although several witnesses stated that they observed Officer Moore push ██████████ after she pushed him, the witness officers denied observing Officer Moore push ██████████. Furthermore, Officer Moore denied having pushed ██████████ at anytime. There is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.

The Reporting Investigator recommends a finding of Unfounded for Allegation# 3, against Officer Moore, that he falsely arrested ██████████ violating her fourth amendment rights, for the same basis cited for Allegation# 3 against Sgt. Boone.
